Volunteer

Volunteers help out at fun museum programs for students, families, and the community. If you enjoy working with people and don't mind getting paint on your hands, becoming a volunteer may be right for you.

Requirements:

- Volunteer for two events per semester
- Attend Student Guild meetings

Student Advisory Committee (SAC)

The SAC is a wonderful way to make a difference by voicing your ideas and suggestions concerning programs and marketing for students. If you are creative, talkative, and opinionated, the Student Advisory Committee is perfect for you.

Requirements:

- Attend three SAC meetings per semester
- Attend two museum events per semester
- Attend Student Guild meetings

Docent

The Docent program trains students to provide engaging, interactive tours to other university students. Those interested in the Docent program should be comfortable speaking in front of groups and be able to communicate ideas and information in a friendly and creative manner.

Requirements:

- Submit an application during the first two weeks of the fall semester
- Attend all Docent training sessions
- Attend Student Guild meetings
- Give four tours per semester
